

National Mentoring Month

Quiz Questions

1. True or False: January is recognized as National Mentoring Month.
2. True or False: Most foster youth experience stable school placements with few transitions.
3. True or False: Frequent school changes can negatively affect academic progress for foster youth.
4. True or False: Foster youth are less likely to be suspended or expelled than their peers.
5. True or False: Mentorship can improve mental health and social-emotional functioning for foster youth.
6. True or False: The article states that stability for foster youth comes primarily from policies.
7. True or False: Erica Reid emphasizes that trust is built when an adult consistently shows up for a child.
8. True or False: Mentor Kansas only supports mentoring programs in three counties.
9. True or False: Some mentoring programs mentioned include KC Kansas Angels, Youth Horizons and Kansas Big Brothers Big Sisters.
10. True or False: The article argues that investing in mentorship can improve outcomes for foster youth.

Answer Key

1. January is recognized as National Mentoring Month.
T/F
2. Most foster youth experience stable school placements with few transitions.
T/F
3. Frequent school changes can negatively affect academic progress for foster youth.
T/F
4. Foster youth are less likely to be suspended or expelled than their peers.
T/F
5. Mentorship can improve mental health and social-emotional functioning for foster youth.
T/F
6. The article states that stability for foster youth comes primarily from policies.
T/F

7. Erica Reid emphasizes that trust is built when an adult consistently shows up for a child.

T/F

8. Mentor Kansas only supports mentoring programs in three counties.

T/F

9. Some mentoring programs mentioned include KC Kansas Angels, Youth Horizons and Kansas Big Brothers Big Sisters.

T/F

10. The article argues that investing in mentorship can improve outcomes for foster youth.

T/F